

Figure 2. RIIC-ReID is a trust-bounded retrieval front-end rather than a generic image enhancer.

Weak photometric priors define a feasible correction set, trust modules regulate risky adaptation, and teacher-guided geometry supervises the final retrieval behavior.

